

Year 1

Book	Themes and equality act links	Key questions	Curriculum links
The Perfect Fit by Naomi and James Jones 	Including everyone and making everyone feel welcome even if they are different. EA: differences and diversity.	How do we all fit in? Which games worked with the hexagons and which games did not? How do the squares make sure the triangles don't feel left out? Why didn't the triangles know how to roll? What does the triangle learn at the end of the story?	Differences and belonging. Celebrating differences.
I am Nefertiti by Aneemarie Anang and Natelle Quex 	Respectful relationships. Respecting other people's differences. The importance of self-respect. EA: Race, relationships.	Why did Mrs Potts call Nefertiti Nef? Was this ok? Did Nefertiti really shrink to the size of a thumb? Why is Mrs Potts nervous when she Nefertiti? Did Mrs Potts need to apologise? Why?	Relationships- celebrating differences Jigsaw.
Mr World Your World by Melanie Walsh 	The world is full of different people-protected characteristics. EA: Race and religion.	Are there any children in the class who do the same things as any of the children in the book? How are we the same as Kavita? How are we different to Kavita? How are we the same as Jacob? How are we different to Jacob?	Difference and celebrating people who are different to us.

Errol's Garden 	Different families. Citizenship- helping each other. EA: Race, Marriage and Civil partnership.	What do you notice about the families and people in Errol's block of flats? Are all of the families the same? How are they different? Why do you think Errol asked for help in his garden?	Difference families.
Elmer by David McKee 	Individuality and celebrating what makes us unique. EA: differences and diversity.	Why does Elmer try to change himself? Does Elmer like being different at the beginning of the story? How does Elmer try to fit in? Should Elmer try to change his skin colour? Does Elmer like his individuality at the end of the story?	Celebrating differences. Individuality and being ourselves.
Going to the Volcano by Andy Stanton 	Celebrating differences. EA: differences and diversity.	How does the story begin? How are Jane and Dwayne similar and different? There are lots of different animals on the train- who is welcome? Who is welcome on the plane? IS anyone left behind? Why not? Do all the friends help each other? Why?	Friendship Helping each other. Similarities and differences.