

Year 5 children study Mechanical Systems, Structures and Electrical Systems. They design and make pop-up books for children using a variety of mechanisms, analyse, test and build bridges, and create their own electronic doodlers. They have also designed and made their own monster squishy.

